PRAYER

The Chaplain, Dr. Barry C. Black, offered the following prayer:

Let us pray.

Eternal God, who upholds us with Your might, keep our Senators sure-footed as they travel through these challenging times.

Lord, lead them safely over the treacherous heights they must sometimes move. Open their eyes that they may see glimpses of truth from Your Divine precepts that will illuminate their paths.

Lord, remind them that victory comes from You, the God of our salvation. Continue to use them as guardians of freedom.

Lord, we thank You for the life and legacy of former Vice President of the United States Walter Mondale.

We pray in Your great Name. Amen.

REMEMBERING WALTER FREDERICK MONDALE

Mr. SCHUMER. Mr. President, last night, the country lost a giant of Democratic politics, a kind and revered public servant, a Vice President who reimagined the position and expanded Americans' views of who could hold America's highest offices. Walter Mondale, known to friends and foes alike as "Fritz," died at the age of 93.

As President Carter's right-hand man, Fritz revolutionized the role of the Vice Presidency. There is an old yarn about two brothers: One went off to sea, and the other became Vice President. Neither was heard from again. That is not true of Walter Mondale.

Walter Mondale was an uncooperative subject for those Vice Presidential comedians. Not only was he often the last person in the room with the President when the tough decisions were made, but he became an unofficial ambassador for the administration. His relationship with Prime Minister Begin of Israel helped paved the way for a peace treaty between Israel and Egypt at Camp David in 1978.

In his ultimately unsuccessful run for the Presidency, Walter Mondale's pick of my fellow New Yorker, the late Geraldine Ferraro, as Vice President was an early crack in the glass ceiling that our current Vice President, KAMALA HARRIS, would eventually shatter.

Vice President Mondale will be remembered as a lion of progressive politics; an ardent defender of civil rights, aid to schoolchildren, childcare, healthcare, and consumer protections. Mondale once said:

My whole life I worked on the idea that government can be an instrument for social progress. We need that progress. Fairness requires it.

Indeed, as Mondale said, we need government to make social progress.

As we say goodbye to one of our country's most decent public servants, let us follow in his example.

MARIJUANA

Mr. President, now on a much different subject, today is what you might call a very unofficial American holiday, 4/20. It is as appropriate a time as any to take a hard look at our laws that have overcriminalized the use of marijuana and put it on a par with heroin, LSD, and other narcotics that bear little or no resemblance in their effects
